

GUESS WHO CAME TO SCHOOL TODAY!

Around 200 students of The Newtown School jumped with joy as they hosted Team Pink, led by Amitabh Bachchan. They cheered for him, as loud as they could. The team included creative producer Shoojit Sircar and actors Taapsee Pannu and Angad Bedi. "I want to thank everyone present here for giving us such a warm welcome. I have been to many schools, but this is by far the neatest school I've ever seen. I hope that Pink can leave a lasting impression on all of you and you carry something within your hearts, that's what the essence of Pink has been, for all of us," boomed the Bachchan baritone.
