

Enthralling session

The Newtown School, Kolkata organised an enthralling TEDx session, a live TED Talk for the first time in a city school specially crafted for children of age group 12-14 years. Around 100 students from different schools of Kolkata attended the TED X Youth event. The session's objective was to present multi-disciplinary ideas with a focus to change attitudes, lives and the world for the next generation.

The event presented a wide range of ideas, ranging from a topic as elementary as 'Good Readers Make Good Leaders' to a topic as complex and overwhelming as 'Symmetry- The Mathemagic of Nature'. There was a TEDx talk on the topic 'Values of Value Education in a School environment', with the aim of making children aware of how values shape every aspect of their lives.

Dr. Sunita Chugh, a known Leadership and Organisation Development (OD) professional, Mr Kunal Munshi, a first generation entrepreneur and well-known figure of the Solar Power Industry and had delivered various lectures and been featured in numerous talks on renew-able and solar powers Mr Ashoke Viswanathan, national and international award winning director, screenplay writer, actor and presenter, Mr Amit Javalgi, deputy commissioner at the Bidhannagar Police Commissionerate were present there during this occasion.
